THE ARMY INFORMATION DIGEST started publication in May 1946. It is officially distributed to the company level in the Regular Army and the National Guard and to the battalion level in Organized Reserve units. A substantial number of subscriptions also have been entered with the Superintendent of Documents.

THE DIGEST is published under the direction of the Chief of Information, Department of the Army, and is prepared at the Armed Forces Information School, Carlisle Barracks, Pa., under the supervision of the Commandant.

Any member of the Armed Forces or any civilian may subscribe to THE DIGEST. The yearly subscription rate is $1.50 for subscribers in continental United States and APOs; $2.00 to foreign addresses. Subscriptions may be entered with the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. or through the Book Department, Armed Forces Information School, Carlisle Barracks, Pa. Single copies may be obtained at 15 cents a copy.
